Lunch for two of us was about $15.00 and the food quality belied the low prices! A great place for lunch or dinner. both excellent! My wife likes the moo goo guy pan, prepared with large white chicken slices and, as she reports, delicious! My favorite is Shrimp Chop Suey, a luncheon special, and I promise that your eyebrows will raise when you taste one of these plump perfectly prepared beauties. Interesting, not what I was expecting ( clear chicken broth with a wonton and a little green onion) but great flavor and nice healthy fresh veggie's. The batter was very thick. Curried chicken and shrimp in lobster sauce were both very tasty. I've tried a number of Chinese eateries in the Palm Springs/Cathedral City area and this is one of the best. Delivery or takeout! The decor is in great need of re-doing, hence the 4 stars instead of 5. Great staff and very fast service. The wonton soup had too many vegetables in it for me. The egg rolls were good, the fried shrimp did not look like the picture in the menu. Food was delicious! Portions were large. We also got the fried rice, chicken chow mien and Mongolian beef. Staff was wonderful and accommodating.This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. The dining room is like eating in someones basement but, the service is good and as I said portions are huge and a lot of bang for your buck here with decent quality ingredients.This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. They won't get a second chance to insult this customer.This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. What we were served looked like a fried shrimp corn dog. I had the Shrimp Supreme and loved it My friend, who was having dental issues, ate the entire serving of Eggplant and loved it. Not really exactly what I was expecting but good healthy and nicely flavored. Nice thinly sliced beef, large perfectly picked and cooked onion and greens, celery, etc. HUGE portions! Great Value and this seems family owned which I love. If you're a fan of authentic, flavorful dishes, this place should be your next destination. This was loaded with wanton's: not your usual one per bowl, as well as lots of fresh delicious vegetable's, pork and loads of other s. On the minus side, the place is plain and simple, clean, but simple. When you picked up the shrimp, there was grease on the plate. The food was hot, fresh well picked and well cooked with I am sure some of the Local Coachella valley veggies.Written February 20, 2021 This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. The chow mien again was loaded with lots of perfectly picked and cooked veggie's and a very nice sauce. The food is a 10! The menu is varied, the prices low and the servings HUGE! Service is excellent. Has a fairly broad menu along with lunch and dinner specials. We ordered egg rolls and fried shrimp for apps, then a small soup and then sesame chicken and beef broccoli. Mmmmmm. The ambience is pleasant and simple. There were no veggies included and the chicken was uncuttable. But after a few recent visits it's time to remind readers again of a wonderful Asian food experience. Dinner and a la carte portions can be quite large. When they asked how it was since I left 3/4 left and I told them it wasn't that great, they just handed me the $10 bill. When I had the left overs I said pad kra pao and chowed it down. Granted I rarely eat Chinese food mostly because I can't find any good restaurant's near where I live. The place was quite plain but the food was excellent, portions were large and the prices were outstanding. But certainly beats the franchise chinese restaurant just down the plaza. Do you allow dogs on the outdoor patio? No ambience. Not loaded with basil but right up there with an excellent basil beef sans the basil. Before service our waiter came out to tell us kitchen messed up and it had the usual spicy to it. What they did send was not fit to eat due to a combination of ingredients that were either over or under cooked, extremely greasy and no flavor except corn starch. It was slightly sweet. But the food and the values are unbeatable... We said no serve it and if we didn't like it we would send it back. We do eat a lot of Japanese, as well as Thai food. The Mongolian beef was way off what I expected. However, the small cup of soup is really very small. Would totally go again!Written November 18, 2018 This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. We were a little nervous about some dishes (e.g., Home style tofu) given the complete lack of description. All their dishes have great flavor and are always cooked perfectly.This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. no baloney, just nice service.This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. The entrees were good, hot and a large serving. The food is good for the money Dinner for 2 with soft drinks came to $25. Maybe share or prepare for takeaway, Food prep isn't fancy but, as I say, portions can be plentiful. My guest ordered the Eggplant & Garlic and asked that thye NOT make it spicy. We took some of each home. We ordered the wanton soup large sized. Plenty of parking as this location is a strip mall containing a Gardenas supermarket and 99cent store. Definitely worth going to when you need a Chinese food fix.This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. Prices were fantastic.
