budget-friendly, which really rounds it out as a must-see destination. Use this travel guide to Chile to plan your visit, save money, and make the most isolated inhabited island on earth. It¢ÄÄÄs famous for its Moai sculptures (the big faces dotted all over the island). However, there is so much more to the island, including thousands of archaeological sites, volcanic craters, pristine beaches, and excellent diving. 2. Discover Torres del Paine National Park Tor hiking tours in Chile. It also happens to be one of the most beautiful and desolate regions on the planet. Admission is 11,000-21,000 CLP (low/high season) for foreigners. 3. Explore Santiago Chile¢ÃÂÂs capital is a thriving city and home to a third of the country¢ÃÂÂs entire population. There are quite a few must-see attractions in the city: Parque Metropolitano (a large urban park), The Museum of Human Rights, and the Museo de Bellas Artes (National Museum of Fine Arts) are all worth a visit. 4. Marvel at San Pedro de Atacama Located in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama Located in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama Located in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in Chile¢ÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in ChileçÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in ChileçÃÂÂs Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in ChileçÃAÂS Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in ChileçÃAÂS Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in ChileçÃAÂS Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in ChileçÃAÂS Region Norte de Chico, San Pedro de Atacama is one of the most popular tourist cities in ChileçÃAÂS Region Nor the world (according to reports, it has not seen rain since 1870), but the rock formations here are impressive, and it is the perfect place for the stars. 5. Visit the colorful Valparaíso nicknamed the "Juerza de América del Sur", this city is a mesh of bohemian bars and Victorian architecture along a coast of cliffs. The relaxed atmosphere and beauty of the area have inspired generations of writers and poets, including the poet Pablo Neruda. Be sure to bring your camera because the whole city is painted in vibrant colors of Instaworthy. The same architect who was responsible for the Eiffel Tower, Alexandre Gustav Eiffel, designed the Cathedral of San Marcos. The cathedral is in Arica, the northernmost city of Chile, and was built to replace the original cathedral destroyed by an earthquake in 1868. The new cathedral was commissioned in 1876 and is a rare example of Gothic architecture in South America. 2. Continue shy on a Chile wine tour The vineyards have produced world class wine for more than 400 years. There are many routes available throughout the country as the vineyards extend the entire length of Chile. I think the best wineries are near Santiago. Expect to pay around 15,000 CLP per person. Most of the tours last from 4 to 8 hours. 3. Walking to a volcano Chile is home to the world's highest active volcano, Ojos del Salado, which is located in the Argentine border. Villarica and Osorno are also popular volcanoes (and both are close to lakes). Most volcanoes in the country also have thermal spas in their Experienced hikers can make the trip on their own, although there are many guided tours available for travellers looking for a group tour. most of the several-day tours span 10-14 days and cost millions al(odirrocer nu nis ratisiv edeuP .PLC 000,03 ed rodederla natseuc sruot soL .acrec sacimr©Ãt sanicsip yah euq ay o±Ãab ed ejart nu agiarT !ozreufse le anep al elav oreP¡Â .amacatA ed ordeP naS edsed ehcoc ne sotunim 09 a ¡Ãtse y esirnuS rop Ãlla etravell ovitejbo omoc neneit arig ed sañÃapmoc sal sadot euq ay ,ana±Ãam al ed 4 sal ed rodederla etratnavel euq seneiT .)odnum led sednarg s¡Ãm sorecret sol nos y(rus oirefsimeh le ne ednarg s¡Ãm resi®Ãg sotse ralupop acitsÃrut n³Ãiccarta anu ,oitaT lE ed seresi©Ãg sol aeV .6 .sorejnartxe arap PLC 000.3 ed se)sarig sal ne adiulcni erpmeis on(n³Ãisimda aL .anosrep rop PLC 000,51 ed rodederla arap selbinopsid n¡Ãtse sruot soL .esratnelac edeup euq ay ,auga reart sedivlo on ,n³Ãisrucxe ed ri arap ragul narg nu sE .euqrap led erbmon le Ãha ed ,anul al ed eicifrepus al a necerap es sasocor senoicamrof sal. .senoicadnuni e sotneiv ed so sanciadnuni e sotneiv ed soe acrec odacibu no Aibmat yellaV nooM lanoicaN euqraP lE .5 .) necah ol sailimaf sahcum(lic¡Af etnemavitaler se euq saroh 7 ed elcub nu sE .azinroC ed orednes le etlusnoc ,ranimac odnacsub ¡Ãtse iS .)![D neneit n© Ãibmat ¡Â(onimac le ranimuli arap socof odnasu ,ehconaidem al a anera euq sruot yah osulcnI .anosrep rop PLC 000,32 rop anera ed athuj al rop odirrocer nu a ri o PLC 005,7 ed rodederla rop anera ed albat anu raliuqla edeuP osocor onaicram ejasiap le erbos navell ol euq anul al ed zul al a sadaiug satanimac yah n©Ãibmat etreuM al ed ellaV. 4. The pool is the size of twenty Olympic swimming pools and is the biggest recreational swimming pool in the world, requiring 66 million gallons of water just to fill it! A 1-2 bedroom apartment rental here costs 70,000-120,000 CLP per night. Accommodation ¢Ã Dorms here start around 8,500 CLP and private rooms come in at around 17,500 CLP. Free breakfast and free Wi-Fi are common, and many hostels have self-catering facilities if you want to cook your own food. Budget hotels are inexpensive in Chile with prices starting at 35,000 CLP for a nicer budget hotels. Many budget hotels include free breakfast and free Wi-Fi (though not all, so be sure to double-check). Airbnb is available in the larger cities, with prices as low as 10,000 CLP per night for shared accommodation. If you want a private home or apartment, expect to pay at least 25,000 CLP per night for shared accommodation. Other popular Chilean dishes include churrasco (steak sandwich), machas a la parmesana (clams baked with white wine, parmesan cheese and butter), and chupe (a hearty seafood stew), and empanadas. Overall, food in the country isn¢ÃÂdt too expensive, though prices get a lot higher the further south you go (due to higher transportation costs). In a "luxury" budget of 260,000 CLP per day, you can stay in a hotel or scheme each meal. However, this is only the ground floor for luxury. The sky is the limit! You can use the table below to have an idea of how much you need to budget daily. Keep in mind that these are daily averages: some days will spend more, some days will spend more, some days will spend less (it could pass less every day). We just want to give it a general idea of how to make your budget. Prices are in CLP. There are many ways to maintain its intact budget when Chile travels. As mentioned, the routes and transport will greatly increase their expenses. Traveling slowly, renting an automvile or walking without a tour will help keep the costs. Because their expensive than in supermarkets. You can pick up a pleasant wine bottle for about 4,000 CLP in the majority of the stores. Take the Autob㺠service is economical and efficient here. Night buses are quite cómeodos and a good way to save in the accommodation of one night (they often have flat beds). Buy food in the Vega market: the Vega market in Santiago sells everything you may need and all kinds of local ingredients from Chile and permit. Buy here for your vegetables, fruits and get an automal experience. Coma in local fish markets: in coastal cities, local fish markets are usually the best place for seafood meal. Although the restaurants look cheap and thrown, they are delicious! Buy around It is not common and sellers adhere to their weapons even when asked for price discrimination. So, if an inflated price is being cited for being a tourist, it is better to move and find find where prices are already configured and visible. Otherwise, it will only be wasting your time and energy. Journey in a micro or collective: Regular buses are for interurban transport. "Micros" are intracios, and "collective" are taxis that drive a specific route once they get four people in the automobile and charge a very low rate. If you want to go to some side, it is likely that there is a micro or collective that can bring it closer, just ask a place and know where you will be alarmed. Couchsurf: Chile does not have a large community of Couchsurfing, but you can give it a chance and try to find an amphition (and get a local friend and a free place to stay). I just be able to send your requests early! Take a free foot tour: there are some excellent options available when it comes to free walks in Santiago, such as Tours 4 tips or free tour Santiago. If you want to explore the city while you learn about your history, architecture and people, seem to make a free tour! Stay in an shelter Hello: Hello Hostels it is a network of shelters predominantly in the south and central. They offer a 10% discount to their members, as well as other local discounts for food and activities. Uniting is free, and its shelters are also committed to environmentally sustainable practices. Traveling in the shoulder season: prices in the country will be cheap out of the high season (which is November-March). This includes the admission to parks such as Torres del Paine, which charge double during the high season. Bring a life ravage: Lifestraw is a water purification tool that you can use instead of buying a single use of a single use of a single use of bottled water. Public transport: public transport, especially in Santiago, is reliable and affordable. In Santiago, you must purchase a rechargeable bus pass (BIP card) for your travels, as individual tickets are no longer available. The card costs around 1,550 CLP with the average journey that costs around 700 CLP (prices vary by day time). BIP cards need a minimum initial credit of 1,000. You have to pay your card and cash recharges; No credit cards are accepted. In addition, take into account that in the off-season season local buses (micros) become less frequent, especially in tourist areas of the city. Bus: for intercity trips, buses are the cheapest way to move, and they are also pleasant! Reclining seats are common and many even reclining almost entirely. In addition, some night buses even have a curtain between the seats so you can have some privacy from your neighbor. The best companies to use are Turbus and Pullman. Expect to pay at least 22,000 CLP per person from Santiago to Antofagasta. From Santiago to Valparaiso, bus tickets cost around 3,000 €. 3,700 CLP in every sense. For something like the field trip through Santiago to Punta Arenas, expect to pay at least 60,000 CLP for the 40-hour bus ride (this is an incredibly long distance, so it will be better to break in stages or fly). Train: Traveling by train in Chile is practically nonexistent. Much of the roads have been decayed beyond repair outside the central region of the country. Trains link Santiago to Curico, Talca, Linares and Chillan with air-conditioned cars, but that's the reach of Chile's train infrastructure. You can visit Trencentral.Cl for routes and pricesFlying: flying through the paas is surprisingly affordable. Wait to pay around 35,000 CLP per person for the two -hour flight from Santiago to Antofagasta. November and March are usually included in the high season, so point at the end of October or early April. The weather will not be perfect, but it is a good commitment for travelers who seek to dodge the crowds. Chile is considered a safe destination and is generally located as one of the safest in the continent. However, crimes still occur, so you'll want to take some precautions during your trip. The most common crimes in Chile against tourists are the minor theft and the sand. Since these are crimes of opportunity, you will always want to make sure your possessions are safe. Be more attentive to traveling on the bus and when you are in popular areas among tourists. When taking the bus (especially the night bus), make sure you don't have any value in your boxed bag. In addition, keep the valuables safe and out of the reach of the potential carterists. If you're enjoying Santiago's nightlife, watch your drink. Never leave it at the table and come back to finish it, as a beverage spike may occur. The earthquakes are also quite common in Chile to make sure it is prepared if one occurs. The most important advice I can offer is to buy a good travel insurance will protect you from illness, injury, theft and cancellations. It's a comprehensive protection. Something's wrong. I'm never going to travel without him, as I've had to use it many times in the past. You can useWidget below to find adequate polytics for you: these are my favorite combats to use when I travel. Consistently they have the best offers, they are better than their competitors. They are the companies that are more use and are always the starting point in my two -way trips. Skyscanner: Skyscanner is my favorite flight bustle engine. They look for small websites and budgetary airlines that the largest mésqueda sites tend to get lost. They are undoubtedly the place number one to start. Hostelworld: This is the best hostel accommodation site with the largest inventory, the best bão squeda interface and the greatest availability. Booking.com: The best reserve site that constantly provides cheap and lower rates. They have always had cheap rates of all reservation websites. Intrud trips: If you want to make group tours, go with Intrepid. They offer good tours in small groups that use local operators and leave a small environmental footprint. And, as a reader of this site, I will obtain exclusive discounts with them! Get your guide is a large line in line for tours and excursions. They have tons of tours options available in cities around the world, including everything from kitchen classes, walking tours, street art lessons and more! Safetywing: Safety wing offers convenient and affordable plans adapted to digital names and long -term travelers. They have cheap monthly plans, an excellent customer service and a process of favile claims to use that makes it perfect for those on the road. If you go to the road and need some equipment suggestions, here they are my For the best travel backpack and to pack! What is the best backpack to travel in the long term? I recommend the Rei Flash 45 package. It is light and code, upper load, superior, It adapts perfectly to the bin of an avión. Tama: 45-47L straps: thick and cos with compression technology that extracts the load from the package up and inward so that it does not feel so heavy. Characteristics: Extreme upper lid, pocket on the front, compatible with hydration, contoured hip belt if you want something different, see my article on how to choose the best travel backpack to obtain tips to choose a package and other backpack suggestions. What to pack for your travel clothes 1 pair of jeans (heavy and not very dry, but I like them; a good alternative is the khaki pants) 1 pair of shorts 1 bathroom suit 5 t -shirts (the Merino is not my preferred company.
