~ "Nobody is NATO Cool" ~ is a meme that was created by a scene from the cartoon network series of the Cartoons The Grim Adventures of Billy & Mandy. In a scene from the episode "Irwin receives a clue", a character named Hoss Delgado ensures irwin that no one is born fresh, except for a person. Since then the scene has been used in a variety of changes. Origin in the episode, Hoss Delgado is talking about the backstory of him to emphasize the point that no one is born fresh. However, he therefore states that there was a single exception to that rule. Then he pulls the visor in his car to reveal a picture of a mysterious elderly man. Over a decade after the initial issue of the episode, the changes to the scene have begun to become popular on memedroid and some communities of facebook in 2016. Most of the previous changes consists of images of the celebrities that are changed in the scene instead of the old man. Later, meme spread also to other communities. One of the first that spread was several reddit communities. Two main communities to use the format include zootopia communities and reddit person. The format has begun to be more popular in March 2019 when Reddit User Theflashgod has loaded a new modification of the format to Reddit. Later, it was quickly modified by the User Reddit Avatier to fix a continuity error in which the Hoss glove Delgado has disappeared in the middle of the scene. It means that most changes to this scene is placing the image of another character or celebrity in the place of old man. This is done to transmit that the modified person in the scene is extremely fresh. This is made with real people and celebrities and imaginary characters. Examples
